THE UNITED STATES GRAND JURY CHARGES THAT:

INTRODUCTORY ALLEGATIONS

1. Federal law requires persons engaged in the business of dealing in firearms to be licensed under the provisions of Title 18, Chapter 44, United States Code. Federal law further requires that, prior to the sale of firearms to unlicensed persons, licensed dealers in firearms, also known as Federal Firearms Licensees ("FFLs"), must determine the lawfulness of the sale, maintain proper records of the transaction, and contact the National Instant Criminal Background Check System ("NICS") to determine whether the prospective buyer of the firearms is prohibited by law from purchasing or receiving firearms.

United States v. Sarah Jean Elwood, et al.

2. As part of these federal law requirements, before an FFL may lawfully sell a firearm to an unlicensed person, the unlicensed person must fill out, date, and sign a Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives Form 4473 – Firearms Transaction Record (“ATF Form 4473”), certifying that all the information provided is “true, correct, and complete.” The information and certification statutorily required by ATF Form 4473 enables FFLs to determine if a firearm may lawfully be sold or transferred to a prospective buyer and puts the prospective buyer on notice of certain legal restrictions on the receipt and possession of firearms.

3. Among the “yes” or “no” questions required to be answered truthfully on ATF Form 4473, is Question 21.a., which provides in pertinent part as follows: “Are you the actual transferee/buyer of the firearm(s) listed on this form . . . ? Warning: You are not the actual transferee/buyer if you are acquiring the firearm(s) on behalf of another person. If you are not the actual transferee/buyer, the licensee cannot transfer the firearm(s) to you.”

4. ATF Form 4473 also requires the prospective buyer of a firearm, by signing and dating the form, to certify and acknowledge the following statements and advisories, which are printed in bold type: “I certify that my answers . . . are true, correct, and complete. I have read and understand the Notices, Instructions, and Definitions on ATF Form 4473. I understand that answering ‘yes’ to question 21.a. if I am not the actual transferee/buyer is a crime punishable as a felony under Federal law, and may also violate State and/or local law. . . . I also understand that making any false oral or written statement, or exhibiting any false or misrepresented identification with respect to this transaction, is a crime punishable as a felony under Federal law, and may also violate State and/or local law. I further understand that the repetitive purchase of firearms for the purpose of resale for livelihood and profit without a Federal firearms license is a violation of Federal law.”

5. Among the Notices, Instructions, and Definitions that the ATF Form 4473 directs the prospective buyer to read is the “Transferee/Buyer Certification,” contained on page 5 of the form, referencing the signature and certification date box. That provision states, in part, that “it is unlawful for a person to engage in the business of dealing in firearms without a license,” and it explains and provides the Federal statutory provisions of when a “person is engaged in the business of dealing in firearms.”

6. At times material to this Indictment, defendant SARAH JEAN ELWOOD, was not a licensed dealer in firearms within the meaning of Title 18, Chapter 44, United States Code.

7. At times material to this Indictment, defendant JEFFREY PAUL JACKSON, a/k/a “Jay,” was not a licensed dealer in firearms within the meaning of Title 18, Chapter 44, United States Code.

8. Beginning in or about May 2020, and continuing through in or about May 2021, defendants SARAH JEAN ELWOOD and JEFFREY PAUL JACKSON, a/k/a “Jay,” engaged in a regular pattern and practice of purchasing and reselling firearms with the predominant intent of obtaining livelihood, profit, and pecuniary gain.

9. During this same period of time, defendants SARAH JEAN ELWOOD and JEFFREY PAUL JACKSON, a/k/a “Jay,” completed approximately 58 separate transactions at approximately 9 different FFLs within the District of Minnesota, during which they purchased approximately 95 firearms, and within a short time sold those firearms, for approximately $100 profit each, to others, including defendant GERYIELL LAMONT WALKER, a/k/a "Man Man."
